For questions 1-15, read the text below and decide which answer (A, B, C or D) best fits each space. There is an example at the beginning (0).

Mark your answers on the separate answer sheet.

Example:

0 A causes B results C leads D invents

TRAFFIC IN OUR CITIES

The volume of traffic in many cities in the world today continues to expand. This (0) ..... many problems, including serious air pollution, lengthy delays, and the greater risk (1) ..... accidents. Clearly, something must be done, but it is often difficult to (2) ..... people to change their habits and leave their cars at home.

One possible (3) ..... is to make it more expensive for people to use their cars by (4) ..... charges for parking and (5) ..... tougher fines for anyone who (6) ..... the law. In addition, drivers could be required to pay for using particular routes at different times of the day. This system, (7) ..... as 'road pricing', is already being introduced in a (8) ..... of cities, using a special electronic card (9) ..... to the windscreen of the car.

Another way of (10) ..... with the problem is to provide cheap parking on the (11) ..... of the city, and strictly control the number of vehicles allowed into the centre. Drivers and their passengers then use a special bus service for the (12) ..... stage of their journey.

Of course, the most important (13) ..... is to provide good public transport. However, to get people to (14) ..... the comfort of their cars, public transport must be felt to be reliable, convenient and comfortable, with fares (15) ..... at an acceptable level.

Part 2

For questions 16-30, read the text below and think of the word which best fits each space. Use only one word in each space. There is an example at the beginning (0).
Write your answers on the separate answer sheet.

Example: 0 [more]

UNIDENTIFIED FLYING OBJECTS

Franklin Roberts was a commercial airline pilot with (0) more than 21,000 hours of flying time behind him. However, in (16) [more] of his great experience, he could not explain something [17] [more] happened to him in the summer of 1931. As he was flying over Lake Michigan, an object appeared in the sky which took him completely [18] [more] surprise. Whatever it was, it raced through the sky ahead [19] [more] his plane and then turned across his path, before finally disappearing [20] [more] the distance.

(21) [more] is the kind of incident that fascinates Richard Haines, a psychologist [22] [more] works at a research institute in California, and investigates reports like these [23] [more] a hobby. Over the last twelve years, he [24] [more] collected thousands of reports on UFOs seen by plane crews. He has concentrated [25] [more] the stories told to him by pilots, [26] [more] he believes they are more likely to be accurate. Pilots are trained in observation and make reliable witnesses. They would generally know what they were looking at [27] [more] it were something familiar. Critics of Haines’s work say that there is, in fact, [28] [more] special about pilots. They claim that pilots are as capable of making mistakes as [29] [more] else. However, none of this has stopped Haines, who continues to investigate UFO reports [30] [more] enthusiasm.

Part 3

For questions 31-40, complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence, using the word given. Do not change the word given. You must use between two and five words, including the word given.

Example:
0 You must do exactly what the manager tells you.
    carry
    You must __________________________ instructions exactly.
    The gap can be filled by the words ‘carry out the manager’s’ so you write:

    0 carry out the manager’s

Write only the missing words on the separate answer sheet.

31 “I was you Jane, I’d take an umbrella and a raincoat” said Annabel.
    advised
    Annabel __________________________ an umbrella and a raincoat.

LETTER OF APPLICATION

0 As you will see from my curriculum vitae, I have attended to university, where I studied English and
00 Law. After finishing my course, I took out a job in a 41 travel agency in Paris and now I organise few tours for people who want to go to Australia and the United 42 States. Although I enjoy this very much, I feel I need to get 44 more experience and it would seems to me that working as
45 a specialised tour guide in England would help me for do
46 that. I would rather work in an English-speaking
47 country, as I need to practise my English. I spent one
48 year at London University, which it was most useful. I
49 did much conversation classes and at first I thought that 50 I would find them difficult. However, they turned out to be very enjoyable. I will have no any difficulty in 51 coming to England for an interview if you will let me know
52 in plenty of the time. I enclose details of my present
53 employer who will be too pleased to send you a reference.
Part 5

For questions 55-65, read the text below. Use the word given in capitals at the end of each line to form a word that fits in the space in the same line. There is an example at the beginning (0). Write your answers on the separate answer sheet.

Example: 0 Discoveries

BOOKS

Nearly all the (0) Discoveries that have been made through the ages can be found in books. The (56) Inventions of the book is one of humankind’s greatest (57) Achievements, the importance of which cannot be overestimated. Books are very adaptable, providing us with both (58) Entertainments and information.

The (59) Produces of books began in Ancient Egypt, though not in a form that is (60) Recognised to us today. The books read by the Romans, however, have some (61) Similarities to the ones we read now. Until the middle of the 15th century, in Europe, all books were (62) Written by hand. They were often beautifully illustrated and always rare and (63) Expenses. With printing came the (64) Possibilities of cheap, large-scale publication and distribution of books, making (65) Knowable more widespread and accessible.

MARKETS

In practically any country in the (0) ......, you are (1) ...... to find a market somewhere.
Markets have been with us since (2) ...... times, when people became self-sufficient and needed to exchange the goods they produced. For example, a farmer might have exchanged a cow (3) ...... tools and so on. But just as times have (4) ......, so have market practices. So, (5) ...... In early times the main activity (6) ...... with markets would have been 'bartering', meaning the exchange of goods as described (7) ......, today most stall-holders wouldn't be too (8) ...... on accepting potatoes as payment, for instance, instead of cash.

In contrast, what might be a common (9) ...... in a modern market is a certain amount of 'haggling', where customer and seller eventually (10) ...... on a price, after what can sometimes be quite a heated debate. This has become so popular in certain places that many people think that this is what makes the (11) ...... atmosphere of a market. But
(12) ...... as no two people are the same, no two markets are the same either, and so behaviour which is expected in one market in one country may not be (13) ...... in another. Even within one country, there are those markets where you could haggle quite
(14) ...... and those where you would be (15) ...... not to try!

SAVING THE TIGER

In 1973, when the tiger appeared to be ... facing extinction, the World Wide Fund for Nature and ... Indian Government agreed to set ... 'Operation Tiger' – a campaign ... save this threatened creature. They started by creating nine special parks ... that tigers could live in safety. The first was at Ranthambore, a region ... was quickly turning into a desert ... too much of the grass was being eaten by the local people's cattle. At the time there ... just fourteen tigers left there. The government had to clear twelve small villages, which meant moving nearly 1,000 people and 10,000 cattle so the land ... be handed back to nature.

Today, Ranthambore is a very different place, with grass tall ... for tigers to hide in, and there are now at ... forty of them ... the park, wandering freely about. Other animals have also benefited. For example, there are many ... deer and monkeys than before. The people ... were moved are now living in better conditions. They live in new villages away ... the tiger park, with schools, temples and fresh water supplies. There are now sixteen such tiger parks in India and the animal's future looks ... little safer.

A LONG WAIT

0  I thought I would let you know how much I enjoyed our holiday
00 together in last week. The only trouble with enjoying yourself as 41 much as we did is that life can seem so dull afterwards. Things
42 started to go wrong when I have got to the airport and was told 43 my flight would be delayed for at least three hours. There was 44 really nothing to do but wait. I felt very hungry but I could
45 not buy anything to eat as I had run out of money. Time
46 passed over really slowly. After about two and a half hours there
47 was an announcement to say us that there would be a further
48 delay of up to two hours, and passengers booked on the flight
49 could order a free meal in the café. I joined up a long queue
50 and had just been being served when I heard another
51 announcement telling to passangers that the flight was now
52 ready for boarding. I had to leave my meal and rush to the 53 gate. There was yet another wait at the gate for half an hour
54 but we did eventually leave more than four hours late. It was not
55 a very good end to what until then had been a so fantastic holiday.

WHAT SPOILS THE OPERA FOR ME!

As far as I am (0) concerned, nothing spoils a visit to the opera more than the (56) DISGUST noise made by some members of the audience to express their (57) CONCERN of a production. There was a time when applause, and shouts of 'bravo', were (58) CONCERN to be sufficient.

More (59) CONCERN, however, the practice, which I first met in the United States, of screaming 'Yo!' or something similar, has spread to (60) CONCERN audiences. It's a stupid sound, quite (61) CONCERN for the expression of your appreciation of fine (62) CONCERN like the Spaniard, Placido Domingo.

I'm not too keen, either, on musicians clapping (63) CONCERN at the end of a (64) CONCERN. They are hardly likely to be fair in their (65) CONCERN at that moment. However, I don't imagine either of these fashions is likely to disappear in the near future.
